China Development Forum

The LSE SU China Development Forum is an annual forum co-organised by the LSE SU China Development Society and the LSE Institute of Global Affairs. Since its founding in 2009, the forum has grown phenomenally to become the largest China-themed forum in Europe, gathering over 400 audience across all fields of profession each year. Over the past decade, we have successfully hosted countless outstanding speakers from all disciplines and aspiring future leaders.

This year's forum, themed "China's Perspectives Redefined", was held successfully on LSE campus on 3rd Feb 2018 and marked the 10th anniversary of the event. More than 20 world-renowned speakers shared and debated their thoughts on the hottest topics on China today, including the Belt and Road Initiative, capital market reform in China, Chinese environmental policies, China and global security and China's role in global innovation.

ABOUT US

OUR PURPOSE

Founded in 2002, the LSE SU China Development Society (CDS) strives to promote a global understanding of China. Our core mission is to inculcate an all-rounded understanding of China amongst our members as well as the wider public. We are the pioneer organisation on campus to focus on issues surrounding China's development and rapidly changing landscape.

With a long-standing vision to 'Bridge Perspectives and Opportunities', our society has laid a great emphasis on organising intellectually stimulating events. Every year, we organise the LSE SU China Development Forum, Bridging Minds Symposium), informative corporate presentations and networking sessions for our members and the wider public.

NK FORUM

This all-day conference provides a platform for detailed discussions about North Korea, from the NK society to the prospects for, and challenges of, Korean unification.

FLAGSHIP EVENTS

BRIDGING MINDS SYMPOSIUM (BMS)

The keynote of each symposium is addressed by international renowned leaders and experts. Past topics include: the Belt and Road Initiative, Chinese media and feminism.

SPRING & SUMMER INTERNSHIP PANELS

Our invited panellists have interned in many prestigious and well-known banks. The session gives students the opportunity to learn more about the application process, ranging from interview tips to online resource recommendations.
